CARBONDALE

SCRANTON

The 1969 TRIANGLE attempted to record the 1968-69 school term as accurately as possible.

An effort has been made to consolidate ALL school organizations and activities. Classes are pictured together, with each individual center in a group--as though it were simply different home rooms.

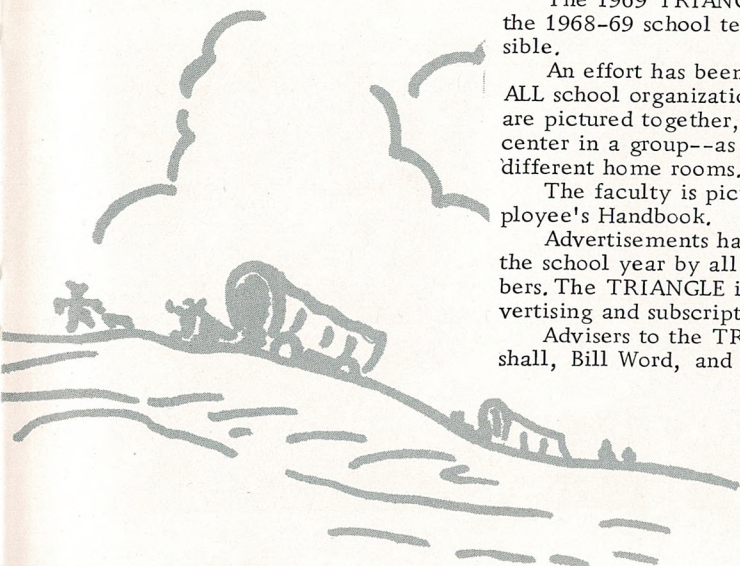

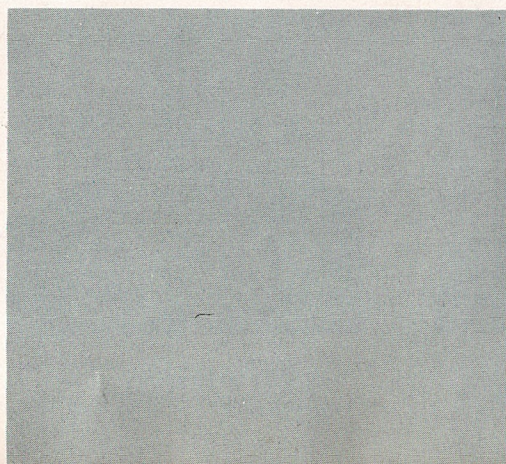

The faculty is pictured as listed in the Employee's Handbook.

Advertisements have been sold throughout the school year by all TRIANGLE staff members. The TRIANGLE is supported solely by advertising and subscriptions.

Advisers to the TRIANGLE are Sara Marshall, Bill Word, and Ray Shirley.

The school year 1968-69 has been an eventful one for most of us. It has had its ups and downs, it's high spots and low. We on the TRIANGLE staff have tried to record those moments for you-- the student, the parent, the grandparent-- to keep to remind you of days gone past. If anything or anyone has been missed, we are truly sorry.

It has not been easy assembling a yearbook of this nature, with the three centers so many miles apart. Many miles have been covered, and much time has been spent doing this one volume. No one will ever know the amount of time each individual staff member spent working on this yearbook--not even our fellow members!

As editor-in-chief of the 1968-69 TRIANGLE, I am very pleased with the fruit of our long, hard labor. It is my ardent desire that you, the reader, will be as equally well pleased.

John L. McCullah
Editor-in-Chief
