O. E. STUDENT OF
THE YEAR Sandy
Finlay

This year at Santa Fe Trail High School, a new program was started, Career Training. What is Career Training? It is just what it says, training a student for his future career. It is broken down into 3 distinct areas, D.E., (Distributive Education) which includes careers in retailing and marketing distribution, O.E., (Office Education) and C.I.T., (Cooperative Industrial Training) comprised of trade, industry and health occupations.

This year the D.E. class operated the DECA Store. They took third place in the state D.E. chapter exhibit. Another accomplishment of the D.E. group was the award of the H.D. Shotwell Community and School Service Award.

The O.E. received first place in state competition for their chapter exhibit. By this, they received the right to represent Kansas in the national competition. This was the first time in the history of O.E. that a chapter exhibit received a trophy.

One kind of the many activities that the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (C.I.T.) did were many community projects.

The students in this program go to school in the morning and work in a chosen career in the afternoon. Where they received school credit and pay for their work. The training stations were as follows: Four Corners Fina, State Motor Vehicle Department, Ohse Meats, Valley Brook Angus Farm, Aaron's Home Store, Glen's Service Station, Stormont-Vail Hospital, Sears, Roebuck, and Co., Arlan's, Neighborhood Youth Corp, and Santa Fe Trail High School.

Ray Thompson was awarded the Outstanding Club Service Award for his participation in club activities and projects. Charlie Branson was awarded the Outstanding Salesman Award.

Isn't something showing Steve?

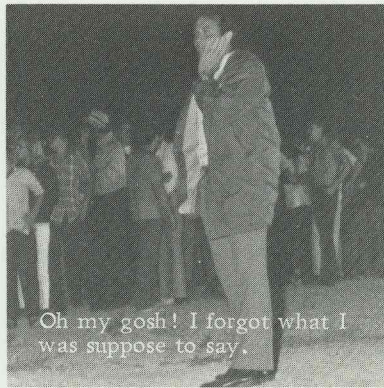

Things get so exciting around here.

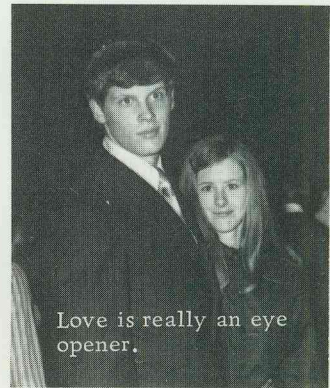

Do you think we should go on meeting like this.

I can't believe I ate the whole thing.

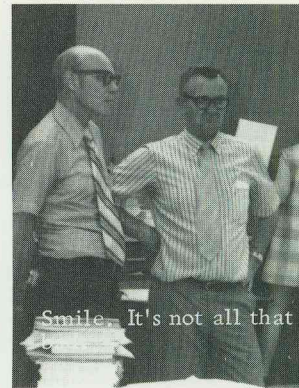

Oh my gosh! I forgot what I was suppose to say.

Love is really an eye opener.

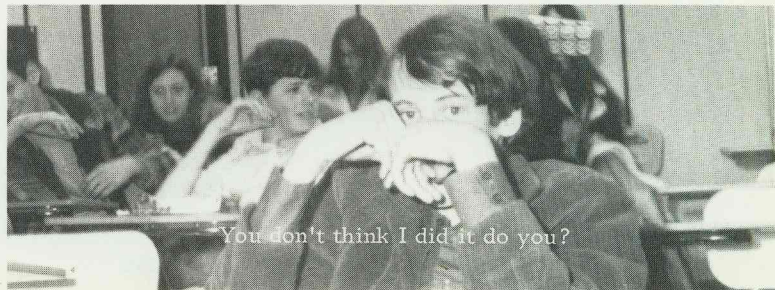

Please help me dear Lord!

Smile. It's not all that

Now how did Mr. Fischer say this was suppose to go?

You don't think I did it do you?
